President's Message

As we move into the holiday season I want to wish each of you abundant blessings this season. I hope you are able to spend some time with family and beloved friends. After over 19 months of COVID restrictions, it feels good to return to a semblance of "normal," though we still have "miles to go" as the poem says.

Last year we all had to adjust our expectations of what the holidays mean. I hope you found ways to connect and celebrate. Maybe you've added new ways to be together. My street does a lot of holiday lights and it was a joy as car after car would drive past, wave, and cheer. I have some favorite quilts I get out to display at this time of year. While last year's Christmas dinner turned out to be a picnic on the deck, it still felt festive, even if the special china, silver, and stemware stayed packed up.

Denise Ragozzino has graciously agreed to coordinate the holiday celebration for the guild. She has found some great quilt-themed games that are sure to lift our spirits. There will be an abundance of delightful baskets for the raffle. If you would like to participate in a gift exchange, bring a wrapped present in the $10-15 range. (It is not a white elephant exchange.) The board will finalize the party details at our meeting on November 1st, so be sure to monitor eblasts for further details.

Thank you all for abiding with our COVID protocols for in-person meetings. I look forward to seeing you at the November 3rd and December 1st meetings. Once again, please accept my wishes for a joyous season.

Linda Lampson
President

Show and Tell

In October the meeting was once again back at the Veterans' Hall for an in-person meeting. Ten of our many talented quilters shared 11 quilts that night. Karen Perlis and Pat Bernard did not attend the meeting in person, but Denise Ragozzino and Debbie Caserta volunteered to sub for us. Many thanks to both of them! Unfortunately the photos aren't available, but a couple members who weren't able to attend the meeting sent in photos of what they've been up to and those photos are included in October's Show and Tell presentation at the website. Donna Huckabee won the fat quarter. Congrats Donna!

Cat and Dog Cuddles

Thank you to Dena Harding, Marilyn Lira, Denise Ragozzino, and Janske Silva for donating cat cuddles at the October meeting. We collected a total of 10 beauties!

As a reminder, we are looking for non-profits who are interested in our dog cuddles. If you know of a place, please contact them and see if they really are interested, then let us know at mqscatdogcuddles@gmail.com. A contact person at the organization would be very helpful.

Cuddles will continue to be collected at the business meetings and during First Friday. The recommended size for cat cuddles is 17" x25". Dog cuddles should be dog-sized.

Thanks for your support of this project.

Programs

Be sure to join us for the November 17th Program Meeting on Zoom for an evening with David Owen Hastings. David will be giving a talk on Indigo Dyeing in Japan.

Our January Program meeting will be the annual Round Robin, and I am still searching for a February program/workshop and would love to hear any suggestions you may have.

In March we will have Brenda Gael Smith joining us from Australia via Zoom. Her lecture will be on her inspiration and process in creating her quilts. She will also be leading a two-part workshop on Circular Explorations. Signups will be on the MQSC workshop – watch your eblast to see when they open.

Quilter of the Month November - Geri Cross

I grew up sewing, mostly garments for my kids and me; Then began some craftier things such as making batik prints and puppets for my kids. I didn't begin quilting until about 18 years ago when a friend, Ann Hines, suggested we attend an MQSC guild meeting.

At that meeting we saw what others were making, learned about classes and technique sharing. I started slowly, learning to make simple patterns, and learning about tools and techniques and taking classes to help me along.

Over time the restrictive "quilting rules" began to be challenged and my interest changed from traditional patterns to more abstract designs. I am now doing mostly art quilts. My quilts are mostly small - some miniature but never, ever a bed quilt size—until recently. I actually made a queen-sized quilt that now rests on my son's bed (Thank you Trina for quilting it!). That's another benefit to belonging to a quilt guild. The people resources! I have others do the quilting just to get it done.

What has been the best part of this quilting journey is the people I have met and the mini-groups that came out of these friendships. Quilting people are so generous, encouraging, always willing to share what they know. They are truly amazing.

January Newsletter

Committee members, be sure to get your articles to mqscnewsletter@gmail by December 15th in order to be included in the January Newsletter.

Friendship Blocks

We mentioned at the last meeting that a lot of you have way more than enough credits to ask the membership to make some blocks for you. What I forgot to mention is that another thing you can do is donate some of your Friendship credits to a member who might like to ask us to make blocks for them, could be a new member to the Guild or someone who just needs a few more credits. Be sure to tell us if that's what you want to do.

Meanwhile we only need a few more Friendship blocks for some of our members so how about making a block or two?

Thanks.
Margaret and Jeanne

Round Robin

Our annual Round Robin workshop will be here before you know it! The board has decided that we will have our 2022 Round Robin on Zoom.

We need several people to share a 15-minute presentation of a quilting, sewing, or craft-related skill or project, and you can do it from the comfort of your own home! Please email Kay Hawkins at mqscroundrobin@gmail.com at your earliest convenience if you'd like to present or have an idea about something you'd like to learn about.

On January 19th, prepare to be educated and entertained!

Kay Hawkins
Round Robin Coordinator

Basic Skills Class

Dena Harding will be repeating her popular 60 Degree Triangle Ruler class on Saturday, Dec. 4th at Village Sewing from 10am to 3:30 PM. The class is full, so if you've signed up and find you will not be able to attend after all be sure to let Pam Brown know so that the spot can be given to someone on the waiting list.

We are still hoping to find free or inexpensive places to hold our workshops. Let us know if you have any ideas. Many of the usual places as are not allowing Community groups yet.

Pam Brown & Jim Haws, Basic Skills

Membership

Just a quick reminder - please pay your dues for membership year 2021-22 if you have not done so already. We have a great lineup of programs and have started working on medallion rounds and the June 2022 quilt show and all sorts of other projects. We want to count you in!

In compliance with requirements for use of the Veterans' Memorial Building, we are making our in-person meetings as safe as possible (proof of vaccination, masks required, no food, etc.) and they are also available by Zoom. Like the rest of the world, we seriously are looking forward to a time early in the new year when none of this will be a concern. Meanwhile, we are hoping to provide the best of all options to you.

If financial constraints are holding you back, we want to help - but we need to know in order to provide a scholarship! If you have a suggestion about how to make it safer in our meeting room, please tell us.

Contact MQSCMembership@gmail.com to share your suggestions and concerns.

Block of the Month

October 2021

November 2021

Hello Quilter,

Wow what a turn out, we received 24 blocks in October so we had two winners! Cathy Vedder and Marilyn Lira each took home 12 blocks. Bonnie Buckingham was the winner of the November blocks.

The December BOM is now posted on the website and is due at the January business meeting.

Thanks,
Debbie Ward and Judi Brooks

November Show and Tell

November was a quiet month on the MQSC Show and Tell stage. Still, five quilters shared 8 quilts during the meeting. If you missed the meeting, check out the Show and Tell presentation at the website to see the photos Donna Huckaby snapped. Thanks a million, Donna! Karen Perlis and Pat Bernard remain hunkered down at home, but Denise Ragozzino managed the list so we know who shared with us. Many thanks Denise!

Help Wanted!

The Historian position is currently vacant and we are looking for someone with a bit of tech knowledge to step up and take photographs at our meetings and events. This person will need either a digital camera or cell phone with a good quality camera, and must have ability to upload photographs to the box account for inclusion in the newsletter and on the website.

MQSC is also in need of a Tech savvy person that can monitor the AV equipment for broadcast of our monthly business meetings on Zoom.

Contact any board member if you'd like more information or want to volunteer!

Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County Minutes of the Board Meeting (by Zoom) September 13, 2021

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 p.m.

President Linda Lampson declared a quorum, based on the sign-in sheet. In Attendance: President Linda Lampson, Vice-President Denise Ragozzino, Treasurer Michelle Crosbie, Gina Stateler-Calhoun, Teresa Lewis, Mary Flynn, Miriam Marlin, Dena Harding, Karen Derrick, Kathy Vedder, Jeanne Nelson, Patricia Bauer, Pam Brown, Marilyn Lira, Norma Jean Edwards, Trina Jahnsen, Karen Perlis.

The minutes of the June 14 board meeting, as published in the September issue of Patchwords, were unanimously approved as presented.

President's Report: President Lampson noted that we are still looking for a newsletter editor, and to lighten the workload for the editor position, we will be publishing one newsletter to cover July and August, well as one to cover November and December.

Vice-President's Report: Denise had no items to report.

Treasurer's Report: Michelle had no items to report.

Membership: Kathy Vedder reported that approximately 60 people had already renewed their membership. Kathy and Miriam will start calling unpaid members in October, and encouraged everyone to renew their membership using the invoice sent out by the treasurer. She reminded the board that scholarships are readily available to those requesting help.

Programs: Teresa Lewis has programs scheduled for most of the new year. With the addition of Zoom workshop availability, members are encouraged to share recommendations for future programs.

Website: Karen Derrick and Patricia Bauer are constantly working to update and polish our website.

Community Quilts: On behalf of the fire ravaged communities in the mountains around Lake Tahoe, Helaine Campbell has expressed tremendous appreciation for the many quilts we were able to donate at our September business meeting.

Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County
Minutes of the Board Meeting (by Zoom)
September 13, 2021 (continued from previous page)

Quilt Show: Trina Jahnsen has begun calling subcommittees together and considering possible changes to floor space requirements since we may not have as many vendors, and food service will need to reflect pandemic hygiene protocols.

Ways and Means: Gina Stateler-Calhoun reported that the next Opportunity Quilt is close to being constructed; Karen Bolan is coordinating the assembly. Marketing the current Opportunity Quilt has become quite challenging, given the limited public meeting places available for display. PIQF in mid-October is a huge opportunity to sell tickets to an appreciative public but requires many hours of volunteer time – please sign up!

Meeting Policies: Linda requested feedback about the safety protocols we have put in place for in-person meetings. While the spread-out seating felt somewhat unfriendly, general agreement was that participants felt safe in our space, especially knowing that the doors were to remain open and that a special, robust air purification system was working in the room. The board agreed that certain activities will probably need to be delayed for a while (such as the library) and that going forward, we will require proof of vaccination for people entering the room. MQSC has purchased special additional equipment so that Zoom meetings are still meaningful for those unable to attend in person.

Membership will be responsible for tracking member vaccinations.

Vets Building use – VP Denise will work with the management to apply best practices for our meetings.

In the past, activities such as Medallion sign ups involved many people crowding around the sign-up sheets in our meeting space. To avoid this, Dale and Trina are taking sign-ups by email on September 25 in order to minimize the need for in-person crowding. The website will have all of the medallion starts on display; they will take sign ups in time-stamped order, starting at noon on September 25.

Holiday Celebration – brainstorming session brought up many great ideas. We STILL NEED A COORDINATOR! There will be a gift exchange (this is not a white elephant project). Gifts must be new items and in the $10-20 range.

Upcoming board dates: Per the constitution, board meetings are to be held in September after the installation of officers, and then in December, March and June after the Quilt Show. Due to the way the calendar has fallen out this year, the next Board meeting will be on November 1.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:25 p.m.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Miriam Marlin, substitute secretary.
